

Hearing Called on $1.5 Million '29 Project

The Arkansas State Highway Commission has recently authorized the Director to proceed with preliminary work necessary for securing right-of-way and construction of State Highway 29 from Palm, near the Lafayette County Line, to Hope. This project is estimated to cost $1,537,500 and calls for widening and reconstruction to primary standards with curb and gutters in Hope.

This project was programmed by the State Highway Commission on August 2, 1961, and planning work started as soon as funds became available.

Proposed plans will call for the new roadway to be built generally on the present location with short sections of new location. It will provide two 12-foot lanes with a high type surface. Total length of the proposed project is 12.3 miles.

Before actual work can begin, the Highway Department must hold a hearing to inform the public of their plans and allow the people affected an opportunity to make statements for or against the route. The District Engineer for the Highway Department has scheduled a public hearing to be held on April 26, 1963, at 9:30 a.m. in the Hempstead County Court House, Hope, Arkansas. The general public, city and county officials are invited to attend.

Pershing Test to Go Without Tracking Ship

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—

Early this month, a crewman on the missile tracking ship Twin Falls Victory died while the vessel was 200 miles down range to support a Pershing rocket test.

The ship left its station to bring the body to Cape Canaveral. It would not be able to return in time to track the missile scheduled for firing the following day.

Should the shot be postponed until the Twin Falls Victory could return down range, or could the missile be launched without the support of the ship?

The problem landed in the lap of the Schedule Control Branch of the Air Force Missile Test Center. The branch is headed by Maj. Walter H. Flint, a veteran of many scheduling dilemmas on the range.

"We discussed the situation with the Army and other Pershing people and they decided they could launch without the ship," Flint said.

Officials decided data received by Cape Canaveral tracking systems and from planes and down range stations would be sufficient.

Matters don't always work out that smoothly for Flint and the four officers and clerical help in his office. Weather, technical troubles with the rocket or with any of thousands of items of equipment along the 10,000-mile-long range sometimes wipe out a missile shot, which then has to be reset.

If launchings were all the Schedule Control Branch had to worry about the job would be a cinch. Last year 154 missiles were fired from the Cape. But the total number of tests conducted on the range was 11,007, and all had to be scheduled.

Some missiles require as many as 30 support tests before they are fired. These include fueling operations, checks of communications and tracking gear, telemetry tests and practice countdowns.

International diplomacy also is involved in range scheduling. An intercontinental range missile fired past Cape Town into the Indian Ocean requires diplomatic clearance with South Africa a month in advance. Some satellite launchings involve notifying certain countries beforehand. These negotiations are handled by the State Department.

Shipping and air lanes in a safety area around Cape Canaveral must be cleared when a launching is imminent. Picket ships, planes, radar and an observer with field glasses atop a Cape Canaveral lighthouse watch for commercial ships and warn them away.

"We've helped more people today than any day in the past 10 years," said Joe D. Henry, assistant district director.

Agents set up tables in a lobby and another room to handle the lines of taxpayers.

Some 100,000 letters probably will arrive today, Wednesday and Thursday, said W. A. Rice, chief of the IRS returns and receipts branch.

It will be several days before the last of the returns are processed because employees can open only about 20,000 letters a day, Rice said.

He added that all returns with payments included must be processed and the checks deposited by the end of this month.

Ark. Loan Criticized by U.S. Group

WASHINGTON (AP)—

The United States Chamber of Commerce, opposing a bill to increase spending authority of the Area Redevelopment Administration, has criticized the agency for what it termed waste and use of pressure to get communities into the program.

The chamber gave its views in a statement submitted to the House Banking Committee which is considering a bill to give the ARA authority to spend an additional $455 million.

It said ARA officials had approved projects on a first come, first served basis, rather than on establishing realistic priorities based on economic need and feasibility.

As a example, it mentioned a $31,000 loan and a $129,000 grant to Gassville, Ark., which was the first such project approved by ARA.

This money, the chamber said, did not go to a "hard core unemployment area."

The loan and grant, it said, was to develop a water system for a shirt manufacturing plant. It said ARA reports indicated the plant would employ 1,000 women but that reports from other sources "indicate that the finished plant cannot physically hold that many women, when operating machines." At the present time, it added, only about 500 women are employed.

The chamber said that the total cost to Gassville was much greater than most people realize.

Mail Floods Last Day to IRS Office
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—

A flood of mail and questions hit the Internal Revenue Service Monday as taxpayers rushed to meet the midnight deadline for filing 1962 income tax returns.

More mail was expected today. The IRS said any return postmarked before midnight Monday is considered filed before the deadline.

The IRS said 67,000 pieces of mail poured in Monday. The total is expected to hit 483,000, a five per cent increase compared to last year, before books are closed on this year's taxpaying period, the IRS said.

An estimated 500 persons visited the district office Monday for assistance in filling out their returns.

"We've helped more people today than any day in the past 10 years," said Joe D. Henry, assistant district director.

Agents set up tables in a lobby and another room to handle the lines of taxpayers.

Weather Still Warm, Windy

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Warm and windy weather beneath cloudy to partly cloudy skies dominated the Arkansas weather picture today, and widely scattered thundershowers were in prospect for this afternoon and early tonight.

The rainfall was expected to spread over the state from the west and bring slightly cooler temperatures late tonight and Wednesday.

Highs today were expected to be in the 80s. Lows in the 50s northwest and in the 60s elsewhere were predicted for tonight.

Winds were out of the south at 15 to 30 miles an hour.

Overnight lows reported around the state today ranged from the low 50s to the low 70s. Traces of rain were reported at Little Rock and Walnut Ridge during the 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m.

Has Idea on the Thresher Disaster

By JAMES CALOGERO

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP)—

The Navy court of inquiry hearing testimony concerning the sinking of the nuclear submarine Thresher recessed today after saying it could not continue without the presence of an unidentified person.

The court said in a statement it had "reached a point in deliberations beyond which it cannot continue without the presence of a person not now in Portsmouth."

The court added it will reconvene "as soon as possible," probably later today but not before 4 p.m.

The day's lone witness, the officer in command of rescue operations for the first three days after Thresher sank, told the court he had formed an opinion as to the cause of the sinking.

But Rear Adm. Lawson P. Ramage added, "It is nothing I care to state in open session."

Ramage, deputy commander of the Atlantic Fleet submarine force, told the court neither he or other top officers in the search and rescue phase was aware until two days later Thresher had radioed information about a "minor difficulty."

Ramage said he learned of the Thresher's radio message on April 12 after the navigator of the rescue ship Skylark was transferred to the admiral's ship to be brought ashore to testify.

Navigator Lt. (J.G.) James C. Watson earlier told the court the last clear message from Thresher was: "Experiencing minor difficulty. Have positive up angle. Attempting to blow."

Ramage said that even if he had learned about Thresher's last message it could not have changed search and rescue plans that went into immediate effect.

"The initial evaluation, however, would have been made sooner," he said.

It had been expected that today's first witness would be a Navy lieutenant who took a last minute leave and missed Thresher's tragic final voyage.

Neutralists Ousted From Laos Outpost
By TONY ESCODA

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Pro-Communist Pathet Lao forces today drove neutralist troops out of Ban Kosi, an outpost on the road between the provincial capital of Xieng Khouang and the Plaine des Jarres, neutralist sources reported.

It was the first neutralist withdrawal reported since a resumption of fighting Sunday night broke a cease-fire agreement before it could take effect.

Gen. Kong Le, neutralist military leader, had refused to give up Ban Kosi and Dong Danh, 11 and 7½ miles respectively from the Plaine des Jarres. Informed sources said he agreed on a pull-back on Sunday, then changed his mind, causing collapse of the cease-fire agreement.

Neutralist sources said Kong Le's forces retreated to Ban Houa, about halfway on the rambling dirt road between Xieng Khouang and the Plaine des Jarres, a strategic plateau ringed by mountains. Kong Le has about 5,000 troops in the plateau area. The Pathet Lao are in control of Xieng Khouang.

NLR Officer Shot to Death, Others Hurt

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A North Little Rock policeman was shot to death today in a shooting spree that started in a Little Rock nightclub and ended four miles out on Highway 130 southeast of North Little Rock.

Patrolman Jarrel Vaughan, 28, was shot five times, once in the heart, but managed to pump two slugs into his assailant after falling to the ground.

Police Chief Ray Vick said the man who did the shooting was James Dean Walker, 25, of Reno, Nev., a passenger in a car driven by Russell Freeman Kumpe, 37, of 7231 Avenue C Houston, Tex.

Vick said Kumpe was wounded in the arm after he tried to break away from Patrolman Gene Barrentine when the shooting started.

A third passenger was a 17-year-old girl who said Walker and Kumpe forced her into the car. She was not injured. She is being held at North Little Rock.

Also being held is another girl, who was following the Kumpe car in a taxi. No charge has been placed against either girl.

Walker and Kumpe were under police guard in a Little Rock hospital where they underwent surgery. Their conditions were not immediately known.

The incident started in a private club on Little Rock's Main Street. Two men were wounded there, Calvin Mattison and Airman 3.c. Gregory J. Bares.

Mattison was being held in the Little Rock jail. He suffered a crease wound on the side of the head. Bares was taken to the Veterans Administration hospital in Little Rock with a bullet in his leg.

Little Rock police radioed ahead to North Little Rock, just across the Arkansas River, when they learned of the shooting and got a description of Walker, Kumpe and the car the men were driving.

Barrentine spotted the car in North Little Rock and pursued it out the highway. He had stopped the car and had called Kumpe out to search him when Vaughan drove up.

Vick said Vaughan started around to the right of the car and Walker came out shooting.

A Little Rock detective, Sgt. Doyle Ball, was injured slightly a little later when his car failed to make a curve at the foot of a bridge and crashed into a traffic island. Ball was on the way to North Little Rock to answer a call for help from the North Little Rock police.

Vaughan had been on the police force for four years.

Little Rain, Crops Not Hurting Yet
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rainfall in Arkansas so far this year is only about half of normal but most farmers aren't feeling the pinch too hard yet.

Strawberry growers in Northwest Arkansas are hard-hit, however, and Boone County farmers have begun hauling water from Harrison for their parched crops.

The Agricultural Extension Service said, however, that the major crops—cotton, soybeans and rice—won't suffer if the state gets a good general rain within the next two weeks.

Ruel Nester, extension agronomist, said some cotton farmers may have delayed planting during the early period (April 1-20) waiting for a rain.

But the planting period runs through June 5 and a little delay won't hurt.

Soybean planting doesn't start until April 25, Nester said, and the best period isn't until mid-May.

April 25 is the earliest recommended date for rice planting, he said, and the period runs as late as mid-June.

The U.S. Weather Bureau says rainfall is measured at 8.60 inches this year, 8.16 inches below normal.

Boone County has an even more critical drought. It has received only 4.56 inches for the year and only traces have been recorded during April.

Nester said growers probably will wait on a good general rain before they plant. Scattered showers forecast for today were not expected to help the situation much.

W. E. (Gene) Woodall, cotton specialist with the extension service, said cotton farmers are more concerned with the possibility that rain, when it comes, will bring too much moisture and interfere with planting.

"I expect we'll get some rain soon," Woodall said. "My only worry is that it will be too much." March has been the only month this year with near normal rainfall according to Weather Bureau records. Rainfall measurements by months at Little Rock and the normal amounts include:

January .81 and 5.22; February 2.70 and 4.81; March 3.81 and 4.81; April 1.22 and 4.93.

Big Two Steel Firms Silent; Probe Sought

NEW YORK (AP)—A pattern of selective price increases seemed to be taking shape today in the steel industry but there still was no word from the No. 1 producer, U.S. Steel Corp.

Republic Steel Corp., the third ranking firm, fell into line with three smaller companies by posting boosts averaging $5.34 a ton on products that accounted for about one-fourth of 1962 sales.

The decision-making executive committee of U.S. Steel, which initiated last year's abortive price rise, was to meet in regular monthly session in New York today.

Few thought that higher prices fixed by Republic and Pittsburgh Steel Co. Monday, and two other companies earlier, could stand up unless U.S. Steel went along.

"Big Steel," as U.S. Steel is known in the trade, accounts for about one-fourth of the industry's tonnage.

There was no new word from President Kennedy, following developments, from his Florida vacation site. The President last week cautioned against any upset in economic stability but conditionally approved increases on selected steel products.

Shortly before Republic's announcement, citing increased production costs and declining profits, a congressional inquiry into steel prices, profits and production problems was ordered by Sen. Paul H. Douglas. A former University of Chicago economics professor.

Birmingham Hearing Has Been Set

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A federal judge has scheduled hearings next Tuesday on whether he has jurisdiction in the case against demonstrators arrested during integration efforts in this Deep South industrial city.

The hearings were set Monday by U.S. Dist. Judge Clarence W. Algood after attorneys for the demonstrators contended that the defendants would be denied their civil rights if tried in city court.

More than 200 persons—including two white men—have been arrested since Negroes launched an anti-segregation campaign April 3. Nine were arrested Monday for sit-ins and picketing.

Most of those jailed have been charged with trespassing after warning or parading without a permit.

At a mass meeting Monday night, Negro leaders announced that a voter registration drive would be the next step in their campaign. They said instructions on filling out voter registration blanks would be presented at a meeting Wednesday, followed by a mass march on the registrar's office at the courthouse.

Two principal leaders of the desegregation campaign—the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. and the Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy—were arrested in a Good Friday prayer march. Jailers said they were making no effort to make bail or otherwise secure their release.

King talked with his wife by telephone Monday night after President Kennedy called Mrs. King and assured her that her husband was safe. Mrs. King said the President arranged for her husband to call.

Kennedys Expecting Third Child

By FRANCES LEWINE

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President and Mrs. Kennedy are expecting their third child in August and are elated.

The vacation White House announced the news Monday and said the First Lady, 33, is in good health but will cancel her official activities.

Thus the President, 45, joins his two younger brothers in the waiting game. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's wife Ethel is expecting their eighth child in June. Joan, wife of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., is awaiting their third in August.

Not since the days of Grover Cleveland has a First Family had such an announcement to make. Cleveland was the father of five. One daughter, Esther, was the first child born to a president in office. She was born in the White House on Sept. 9, 1893.

The Kennedys have been obviously elated at the prospect of another child and their good humor has been evident during their Easter holiday at this Florida resort community.

With them are their children, Caroline, 5, and John Jr., 2.

There had been persistent rumors in recent weeks that Mrs. Kennedy might be pregnant because since late December she has virtually given up her favorite sports of horseback riding and water skiing.

But, when White House press secretary Pierre Salinger announced that he would hold a special 5:30 p.m. news briefing, the press corps speculated on such weighty topics as steel price rises and the President's forthcoming trip to Europe.

It took all by surprise when Salinger read this statement: "The White House announced today that Mrs. Kennedy is expecting a baby in the latter half of August. Mrs. Kennedy has maintained her full schedule for the past few months. Because of this active schedule, her physicians have now advised her to cancel all her official activities."

Among the official activities was Mrs. Kennedy's expected trip with the President to Italy this summer.

She will spend this summer at Cape Cod with her children. She expects to return to Washington for the birth of the baby which will be delivered by Caesarean section.

The First Lady, who has a history of miscarriages, has obviously been taking it easy in recent months, but her health and condition were reported to be fine.

The principal physician attending her has been Dr. John W. Walsh, a Washington obstetrician who delivered John Jr. when he was born prematurely at Georgetown University Hospital in Washington in the early morning hours of Nov. 25, 1960, the day after Thanksgiving. Kennedy, just elected president but still not in office, rushed back from the start of a Palm Beach vacation.

Caroline was born in New York on Nov. 27, 1957.

For Mrs. Kennedy, the forthcoming birth will be her fifth Caesarean section.

Both Caroline and John Jr.

ARKANSAS POULTRY FESTIVAL ATTRACTIONS

Miss Rosemary Clooney, star of stage, screen and radio, will be featured entertainer for the 4th annual Arkansas Poultry Festival to be held in Little Rock June 14-15. An estimated 2,000 persons are expected to attend the banquet in T. H. Barton Coliseum, which will be televised beginning at 7:30 p.m.

A DEAD ENDING

THE STORY: While Cornelius Ryan is talking to Frances Terrill concerning the disappearance of Matt Higby, suspected of having murdered Dennis Hooper, the murdered man's uncle, General Hooper, calls on Frances.

XIV

Frances poured herself another drink. "I'll send you a bill for the damages, General. My personal feelings will take care of themselves. Now, if you'll excuse me..."

He gave her a stiff little bow, heels together. "It's good of you to accept things as you have," he said. "If there's anything else I can do—?"

"You can just get out of here!" she almost shouted at him.

I saw a dark red flush mount in his cheeks.

"Good morning, Mrs. Terrill," he said, short and clipped. He turned to me. "And you, sir."

He walked out, stiff-backed.

Matt Higby wasn't a fool. I told myself. In the few words I'd had with him outside the precinct house there'd been no question he understood the full implications of that prefab bow tie on Cash's desk.

Somewhere along the way someone would laughingly report to Cash Matt's foible about ties and his carrying a ready-tied one "to cover contingencies." In the end Cash would probably track his movements to Dennis Hooper's apartment.

I could have sworn when he left me standing on the sidewalk that he was headed here to Frances. What had changed his mind?

I got two phone numbers from Frances, who'd poured herself another drink, and tried them both. No one answered at Matt's apartment. An old man's voice responded at Matt's Wall Street office. Mr. Higby wasn't there at the moment.

"This is Cornelius Ryan, his lawyer," I said. "I had a lunch date with him and he didn't show up."

"Oh, Mr. Ryan!" the old voice quavered. "Haven't you heard the news? He's being held by the police. This is Felix Watson, his secretary."

"He was released at quarter-past nine this morning, Mr. Watson," I said. "He hasn't been in touch with you?"

"No, sir. Not since he left here yesterday afternoon."

"It's very important that I locate him," I said.

The old man hesitated. "There is a number I might call, sir," he said.

"I'm at Mrs. Terrill's apartment now, if that's what you mean."

The old man sounded relieved at not having to keep the secret. "That's what I meant, sir. If Mrs. Terrill doesn't know—"

"Who handles his affairs at the Waltham Trust?" I asked.

"Mr. Harry Markell, sir."

If Higby was planning to blow town he might have arranged for plenty of cash. I called the bank and got Markell on the phone. He wasn't, quite properly, eager to cooperate. I managed to convince him that I was worried for Higby's safety.

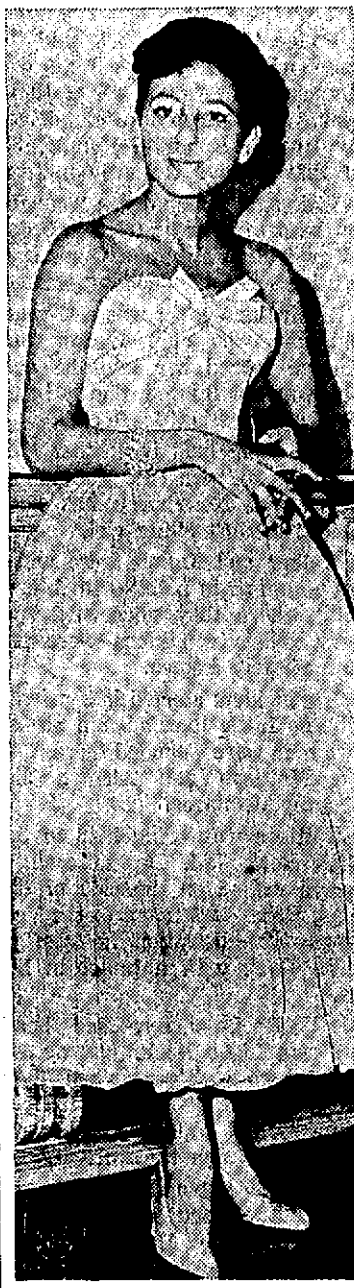

Markell asked me to hold on. In a few minutes he came on the wire again. Higby hadn't made any withdrawals so far today.

"That's about the end of the line," I said to Frances.

I noticed that curious little twitch at the corner of her mouth.

were delivered by Caesarean. Also Mrs. Kennedy had an emergency Caesarean in 1955 when a baby was born dead a month prematurely.

No Collision But Passengers Jump

QUITO, Ecuador (AP) — Two trains approached a station on a nose-to-nose collision course Monday and dozens of frightened passengers jumped out of windows. Twenty persons were injured in falls—but there was no collision.

The engineer of one train managed to get it in reverse and backed away in time as the other

Spring for most of the country will be accompanied by more frequent storminess than usual, weatherman says.

Temperatures will average well below normal over western half of the nation in April, but well above in the East.

Youths Acquitted in Murder Case

PHOENIX, Ark. (AP) — Four Arizona youths who were arrested in Arkansas had nothing to do with the death of a Fort Worth, Tex., socialite, sheriff's officers said Sunday.

The youths were arrested at Batesville, Ark., waived extradition and were taken to Holtbrook, Ariz., where they are charged with raping a 15-year-old girl.

They are Bob Harkley, 22, of Joseph City; Lynn Norton, 16, Larry Barker, 16, and Gary Rogers, 18, all of Winslow.

Batesville police found two suitcases containing women's clothing in possession of the boys, but Arizona authorities said the clothes did not belong to Miss Jane Langdon, 21, who was found March 23 north of Phoenix. She had been shot three times and killed and had been sexually assaulted.

The Texas Christian University coed disappeared March 21 after arriving in Phoenix by airplane from Dallas, Tex. No trace of her luggage has been found.

Escapes Are Rounded Up

LONOKE, Ark. (AP)—A posse rounded up three escapees from the Lonoke County jail Monday and one of them was promptly sentenced to three years in prison on burglary charges.

The other two pleaded innocent by reason of insanity, also to burglary charges, and were committed to the State Hospital for 30-day mental tests.

Sheriff Warren Minton identified the three as Eric Lepton White, 21, of Newport; and John Berlin Rhynes, 19, and Robert Meyers, 18, of California.

They escaped by tearing out plumbing in their cell and using pieces of pipe to pry out bars. They were captured separately in a rural area north of Lonoke.

After the capture they were brought before Circuit Judge W.J. Waggoner for a hearing on the burglary charges on which they had been held. White pleaded guilty and got the three-year sentence. Rhynes and Meyers pleaded innocent.

White was charged in a grocery store burglary, Rhynes and Meyers in several burglaries around Lonoke County.

Griffin Show May Develop Into an Hour

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — There's more than meets the eye to CBS' signing Merv Griffin as host on "Talent Scouts" this summer.

Michael H. Dann, television network vice president in charge of programs, revealed that efforts are under way to develop an hour variety show around Griffin, to go on the air as soon as an evening opportunity, meaning a hole in its schedule, presents itself.

Dann said that he had never experienced "so much pressure on behalf of a performer—from the public, from agents, from the press and from other performers" as he had received on Griffin's behalf when NBC announced the cancellation of the daytime "Merv Griffin Show" a couple of months ago.

Dann leaves soon for Hollywood to confer with Judy Garland about her projected series of hour variety shows next fall.

"The Judy Garland Show" will be big-budget entertainment, with each show costing $100,000 or more.

If ever a television show sounded as if it were designed to be a demonstration episode for a whole series it is Thursday night's "Million Dollar Hospital" on ABC's "Premiere Theatre." Indications are, however, that television finally is reaching the saturation point for this type of show, just the way it did a few seasons back when there were just too many Westerns for enjoyment.

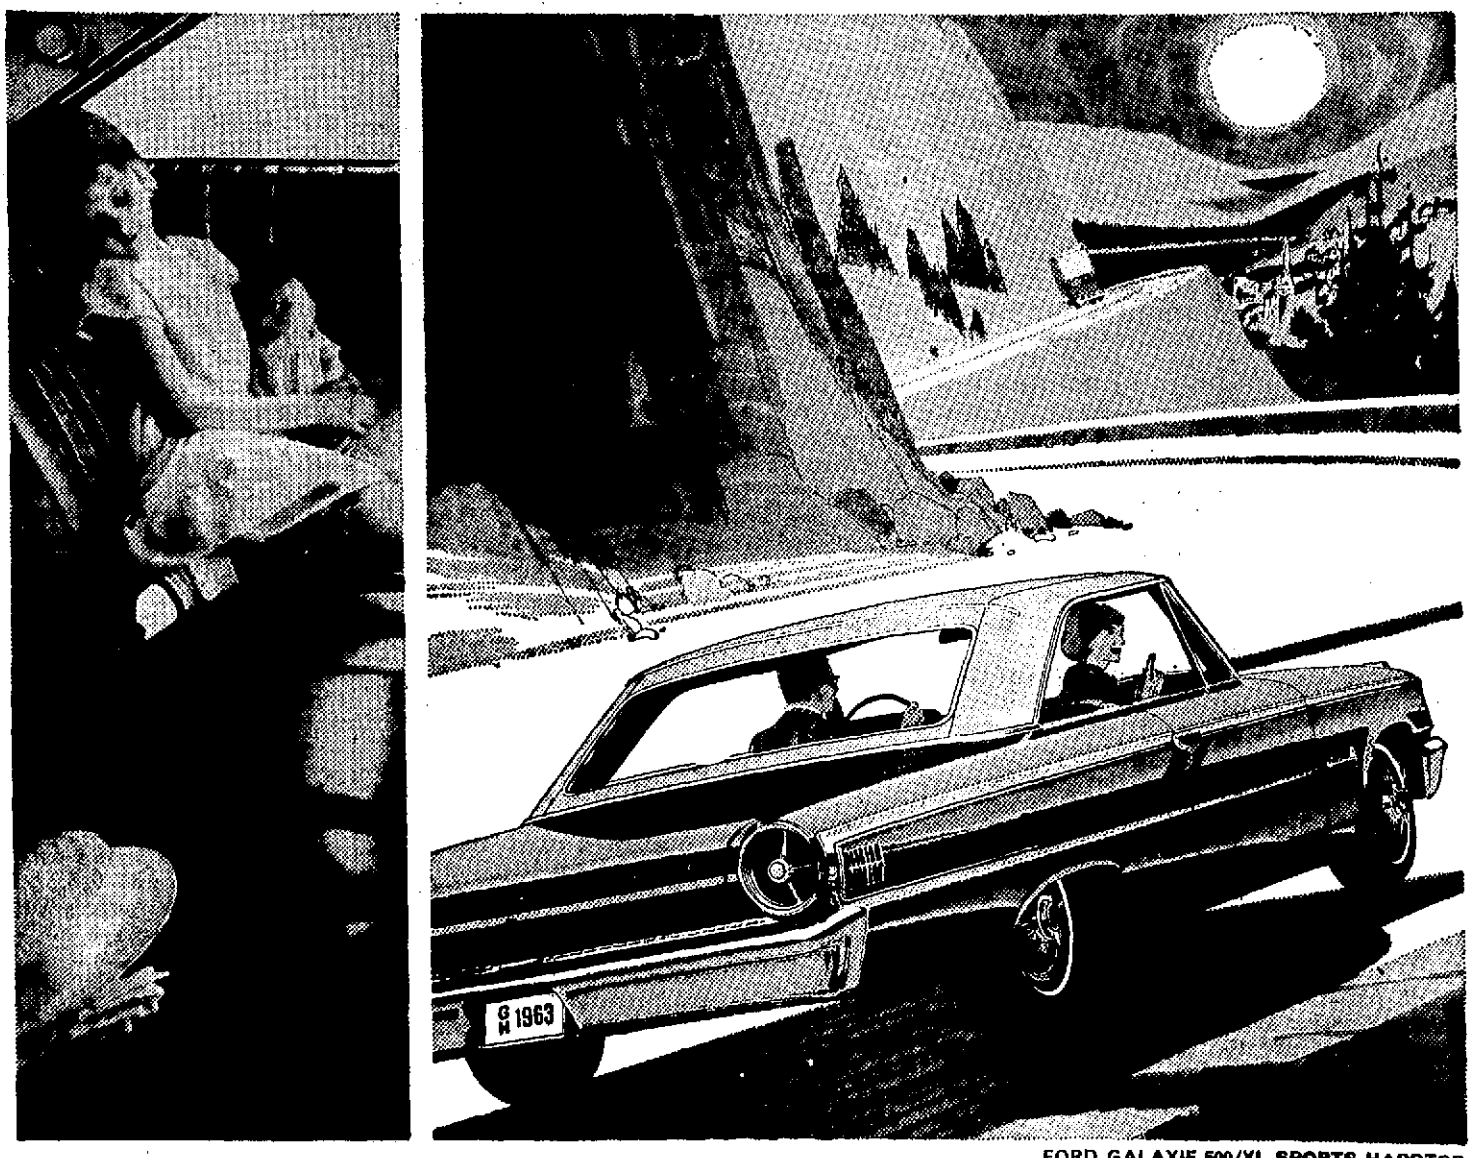

Air Teams to Be Briefed

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — Members of the Ark-La-Tex Air Power Council were to leave Barksdale Field at Shreveport today for Colorado and Nebraska where they will be briefed on the United States' long-range nuclear conference.

Arkansas members are from Camden, Texarkana, Magnolia and Little Rock.

The group will fly to the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs and then to Strategic Air Command headquarters at Omaha.

TOTAL PERFORMANCE:

FORD GALAXIE 500/XL SPORTS HARDTOP

YOU'LL KNOW WHY SHE DOESN'T FEEL THE BUMPS...WHEN YOU TEST-DRIVE FORD'S NEW $10,000,000 RIDE

The 1963 Ford gives you a ride every bit as smooth as cars costing hundreds more, and for two reasons: a revolutionary new suspension system... and added road-hugging weight.

It took ten million dollars to develop the new Ford ride. We designed a revolutionary new suspension system for the '63 Ford. Where ordinary suspensions move only up and down to absorb road shock, the Ford suspension moves backward as well. In this double-action suspension system, coil springs up front and leaf springs in the rear combine to give you firmness in cornering and a special smoothness over the road.

We added weight, strength and stability. The new Ford is now actually hundreds of pounds more car than any other car in its class. This remarkable weight advantage is in the suspension, frame, and body. And, as you know, this added weight means a more stable ride.

But a solid, road-smoothing ride is only part of Ford's total performance story for 1963. Look how Ford swept the field this year in the grueling Daytona, Riverside and Atlanta 500's and in the demanding Pure Oil Performance Trials. Only a car with total performance—the best combination of strength, balance, precision control, braking power and road-clinging suspension—could roll up so many wins.

Before you buy any new car, test-drive a Super Torque Ford. If you haven't driven one lately, you can't really know what a new Ford is like. Make this important discovery—if it's built by Ford, it's built for performance... total performance.

Pleads for Cease-Fire in Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Lao Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma appeared doubtful today that cease-fire pledges would be observed by neutralist and pro-Communist forces in the Plaine des Jarres.

The neutralist premier flew to Home.

Dear Helen: I wish I could sit down and talk things face to face with you. I'm in my late forties, have two fine children (one of whom is married) and three lovely grandchildren. My children's father and I divorced years ago. He was the snagging type.

Well, I succumbed to the town flirt! He died very suddenly and I eventually married a man who is good in his way but a cross-patch, snaps at me, snaps at my children and grandchildren. It makes them feel unwanted. He kisses me when he leaves in the morning, when he returns at night and that's it. At home he putters in his workshop, watches TV or reads, among other things your column. So please print this. I feel so unwanted. —A Reader

Dear Reader: Before you can resolve the problem you will have to get at the cause. Try to talk things over with your husband amicably. Perhaps he is the old-fashioned type who tends to his business, is a good provider and takes sex philosophically. His kind has been supplanted by the romantic image of a man who is supposed to be an ardent lover all his life. Rudolph Valentino started the trend. Various foreign "princes," notably the Medivans, further developed this image.

The average every-day American husband just doesn't fit the pattern. The discrepancy bothers the wife. She takes it out in nagging and the husband, sensing the reason, grouches. Community of interests would help. Read the books he reads, enjoy TV with him. Find some handicraft like rug - weaving, candle - making or book-binding which you might do in a corner of his workshop. Once you two learn to share life with each other, the foundations will be laid for a deep and lasting love.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

the trouble area Sunday and interviewed heads of the opposing factions. He said they pledged to stop fighting while he tries to patch up their differences.

"I will see if my instructions given to them not to fight will be respected," he added, however.

The pro-Communist Pathet Lao under Gen. Sinkapo has bottled up the neutralist army under Gen. Kong Le on the Plaine after sporadic clashes in the past two weeks.

The Pathet Lao control most of northern Laos, and there is widespread suspicion that they are planning to make their hold complete by eliminating the neutralist forces.

Prince Souvanna Phouma talked with Kong Le, Sinkapo and with Col. Deuane, leader of a dissident, ultra-leftist group of neutralists.

Kong Le told newsmen that the obvious aim of the Pathet Lao was to bottle up his forces in the vulnerable hill-ringed Plaine 115 miles north of Vientiane.

Mets Fail to Win Again But No Panic Yet

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Mets lost again, but there's no PANIC! It's more like CINAP.

There's no other way to spell it out for a team that is continually moving backward.

The Mets moved forward for 8 2-3 innings plus two strikes Monday, then Lee Maye shoved them backward by shoving his bat in front of a fat pitch for a two-run homer that gave Milwaukee a 4-3 victory in the only game played in the majors.

From 72-year-old Casey Stengel, the grizzled, backward-speaking manager, to 18-year-old Ed Kranepool, the rookie outfielder, the loss was a morale-mauler, bringing back the memory of last year's dismal start that never ended.

Against the Braves, the Mets massed their heaviest artillery and boomed out 12 hits, they committed only one error, they led going into the ninth, they were one strike away from victory when Tracy Stallard fired to Maye.

The defeat left the Mets with a 6-6 record, dropping them 4½ games back of the National League leaders. They are, naturally and uncomfortably, situated in the cellar.

Shutout for six innings by Bob Shaw, the Mets struck back in the seventh — and everything worked.

In the eighth, the Mets snapped the tie on singles by Kranepool and Duke Snider, a walk to Jim Hickman and a sacrifice fly by Harkness.

Unfortunately they had to play the ninth, Stallard, working in relief of starter Al Jackson, got Ed Matthews and Joe Torre to open the inning. One out to go. Stallard got ahead of Maye 1-2. One strike to go.

Then Maye struck.

The Mets will try again tonight at Cincinnati.

National League champion San Francisco finally gets to play its home opener, against Houston, and the Los Angeles Dodgers raise the curtain in their own park against the Chicago Cubs. Pittsburgh will be at St. Louis and Philadelphia at Milwaukee on a full schedule.

In the American League, Chicago and Boston hold their home openers, the White Sox meeting Kansas City and the Red Sox taking on Baltimore. Detroit will be at New York. Los Angeles at Minnesota and Washington at Cleveland.

Wins Pickles at Baseball Game

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP) — What would you do with 1,000 pickles? If you can answer that question, then you can help Forrest E. Wise of Newport. He won 1,000 dill pickles as a gate prize last Tuesday at the opening home game of the Kansas City Athletics.

His suggestion?

"I should find the guy who won 1,000 cans of beer and the one who won 1,000 hot dogs and we could have a picnic in left field."

Ewbank Takes Over Pro Grid Titans

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "I've seen sicker cows than this get well," said Weeb Ewbank of his new charges, the New York Jets—nee Titans—of the American Football League.

Ewbank, who turned a "sick cow" into a championship team at Baltimore and then was fired after a nine-year stay, became the coach and general manager of the re-named Jets Monday. The announcement was a formality for the story had leaked into the papers day earlier.

The new owners of the Jets, a five-man group headed by Sonny Webbin, president of Music Corporation of America and a director of Monmouth Race Track, are attempting to wipe out the last reminder of the sad sack Titans. They bought the bankrupt club from Harry Wisner last month for $1 million. The signing of Ewbank to a three-year contract for a reported $100,000 was their first big move.

Ewbank, a chunky man of 55 years with an enthusiastic outlook on life, knows he faces many problems. He is aware that the old owners did not sign a single draft choice last fall. He also knows the club had a 5-9 record and finished last in its division. The Colts fired Ewbank in January.

Arkansans Show in Bowling Meet

MEMPHIS (AP) — Carolyn Bufington and Del Riley of Corning, Ark., took over sixth place in Division Two Doubles during the International Bowling Congress Tournament in Memphis Monday.

They rolled 1,006, which was 10 pins short of the lead.

Other Arkansas showings include:

Division One Singles: Kathy Quinn, Blytheville, 576, fifth place; Division One Team: Hilltop Lanes, Jacksonville, 2,592, third and Pepsi Cola Bottling Blytheville, 2,516, ninth; Division Two Team, Cliffs Phillips 66 Pine Bluff, 2,339, third and Dr. Pepper Frostys, El Dorado, 2,251, ninth.

ary and replaced him with Don Shula. Weeb had two years to go on a contract reported to call for $30,000 per. He and owner Carroll Rosenbloom of the Colts agree they made an "amicable solution to their problems."

Ewbank said George Sauer, general manager of the Titans last year, was out looking for talent. He said he would interview coaching jobs and hoped to line up a staff soon. Bulldog Turner, head coach in 1962, will be paid off. He has one year remaining on his contract.

"I hope this will be my last move," said Ewbank. "I hope to start a new era for the AFL here."

Chuck Wagon Has a New Manager

John Sander

Arkla Village General Manager Blue Archer announced today that the Chuck Wagon Restaurant is now being managed by a well-known resort restaurant manager. The new manager is John Sander, who previously owned a restaurant in Eureka Springs. A native of Germany, Sander has a varied background of restaurant experience in Europe and this country.

Sander is a native of Germany, and came to this country in 1928 after a background of resort restaurant operation there. In recent years he owned the "House of Sander" restaurant at Eureka Springs. It was featured in the Ford Times Magazine as one of the famous restaurants and cafes of North America.

The Chuck Wagon Restaurant is one of the most popular attractions at Arkla Village. It is open from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily. The Village is a re-creation of a frontier town, and is a frequent stopping place for tourists and residents of Southwest Arkansas.

Arkla Village is a division of Arkla Industries Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company.

AIC Schools Okay Tourney Expansion

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference basketball tournament expansion to 12 teams has been approved by faculty representatives of AIC schools.

They also recommended to National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics District 17 that the playoff between the tourney winner and the AIC champion be reduced from three to one game.

The expansion will let AIC members and two independents—Little Rock University and John Brown University—compete in the tourney, which is held in Pine Bluff.

The tournament winner would then play the AIC regular-season cage champion at a neutral site to determine the district's representative at the NAIA national championships in Kansas City, Mo. If the AIC regular-season champion won the tourney there would be no playoff.

The representatives also agreed that tourney games should be played at night. A proposal to legalize full scholarships in the AIC was rejected 7-3.

Travelers to Open Baseball Season Tonight

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers open the International League baseball season in Little Rock tonight against the Rochester Red Wings. Traveler manager Frank Lucchesi has issued a word of caution—to Arkansas fans.

"I only ask that our fans don't get too excited if we get off good, and that they don't panic if we get off bad. It's a long season," Lucchesi said.

Bill Smith of the Travelers and Bill Short of Rochester have the starting pitcher's roles.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus is expected to throw out the first ball. General Manager Ray Winder announced Monday that pre-season ticket sales had passed the $100,000 mark.

Club president Harold C. May will preside over the introduction of players by Lucchesi and Rochester manager Darrell Johnson. Eddie Sawyer, former Philadelphia Phillies manager, will represent the Travelers' parent club and League president Tommy Richardson is expected to be on hand for opening ceremonies.

The weather should be in the mid-60s, with a chance of showers possible but unlikely. A crowd of over 6,000 was predicted Monday for tonight's opener by Traveler officials.

Smith will be seeking his first victory for Arkansas, but his eighth in a row. He won seven straight for Buffalo at the end of the 1962 season.

Lucchesi will be seeking his fourth straight pennant — but his first in Class AAA baseball.

Dates Set for Track Meets

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Athletic Association has announced that the Big Nine Conference and Big 18 track meets will be May 3-4 and the Class A and AA meets will be May 10.

The AAA said the Class B junior and senior meets are scheduled for May 11 at Harding College at Searcy.

The Big Nine meet and the Big 18 will be run at Little Rock Central High School. The Class meet will be at Arkansas State Teachers College in Conway, the Class AA meet at Ouachita College in Arkadelphia.

First and second place winners in the state meets will run in the Meet of Champions at Central High School later. An AAA-appointed committee will administer the drawing for lanes and heats. No coach involved in the meet will serve on the committee.

Coaches to Make an Analysis

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The University of Arkansas football coaching staff was expected to begin analysis today of films of Friday's scrimmage to determine the Razorbacks need polishing.

Coach Frank Broyles said Sunday that a hurried look at the films indicated that quarterback Fred Marshall is developing well on defense.

Broyles, because of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's new rules, is stressing two-way play this spring. Most of the Razorbacks were one-way specialists in Broyles' three-team system last fall.

The lack of consistency of younger players is being studied, Broyles said. Most of them were having troubles adjusting to the straight fundamental defense used by the varsity squad. The freshman team used a stunting defense last season.

Broyles also said quarterbacks Billy Gray and Gordon Guest looked good in the films.

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas State College dropped a baseball game to Memphis State University 3-1 at Jonesboro Monday after blowing a 1-0 lead.

Jim Kellar scored on a double by Robbie Finch, giving the Indians the lead.

But in the fifth inning Russ Volmer hit a sacrifice fly that scored Charles Knight, who had singled for MSU. Then Kellar bobbled a grounder, with Houston Akin scoring. He had walked.

The other MSU run came when the season ends Dec. 31. John Bramlett scored on another sacrifice fly by Volmer.

The Indians meet Quincy, Ill., in Jonesboro on Friday and Southern Illinois at Jonesboro on Saturday.

LSU clinched the victory in the fourth inning by getting four runs on a balk, two errors, two walks, two singles and a two-run double by Dick Hydel.

Pro Cage Playoff to Resume

By BOB HOOBING
Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP) — That unique pressure-cooker — playoff basketball — has calmed Los Angeles Coach Fred Schaus fuming and fiery Red Auerbach of Boston praying as a prelude to tonight's second game in the National Basketball Association championship series.

The Celtics, seeking an unprecedented fifth straight title, went one-up in the best-of-7 set with a 117-114 victory Sunday night.

The Lakers are bent on reversing the 1962 finish when the Celtics edged them in overtime of the seventh and deciding contest.

While Los Angeles held a drill Monday, sports writer Bill McSweeney of the Boston Record-American reported Schaus flared.

"Now I know why Ted Williams hated this town. You Boston sports writers are a bunch of homers. The town is bush."

McSweeney said he and Schaus clashed over a story McSweeney wrote about the accident in which rookie John Havlicek suffered an injured left ankle Sunday. McSweeney said Schaus told him Monday "you make it seem like I wanted him (Havlicek) hurt."

Though favored by the odds-makers in the second game, the Celtics were cast in gloom over the loss of Havlicek, not only a standout defensive man and shooter but an inspirational hustler.

Boston also worked out briefly. Auerbach was asked what his plans were.

"Pray," was the answer.
